

Daniel Dopps Memorial 2019 Scholarship Program

The Daniel Dopps Memorial Scholarship was established to support the education of students with a permanent address in Elmore or Owyhee County or the Duck Valley Indian Reservation. In 2019, a minimum of two scholarships will be awarded to a student planning to pursue an education in the trades or at a business school, technical school, or four-year college in agriculture, education, medicine, skilled labor (plumber, electrician, auto mechanic, HVAC) or science. Preference will be given to graduating high school seniors. Scholarships will not be renewed automatically; however, eligible students are encouraged to apply each year they are eligible.

A scholarship committee, designated by the Daniel Dopps Memorial Rodeo Board, will be responsible for determining scholarship winner(s). The Scholarship winner(s) will be selected based on school and community involvement, financial need, scholastic performance and essay. Interested students are asked to return the completed application with an essay via mail to: Daniel Dopps Memorial Rodeo, PO Box 1095, Mountain Home, ID. 83647. Completed applications must be postmarked no later than April 15, 2019. Awards will be announced in early May of 2019. Incomplete applications will not be included for consideration.
